

Marion County Master Gardener Class 2018
Pesticide Safety
Label Exercise

Read the labels for ferti-lome Tree and Shrub Systemic Insect Drench and Southern Ag Dipel Dust and answer the questions for each product.

ferti-lome Tree and Shrub Systemic Insect Drench

1. For what purposes should measuring and mixing utensils not be use after using them with this product.
2. What non-target organisms are at risk when this product is use and what does the label direct the user to do to protect those non-target organisms?
3. What is the minimum PPE for this product?
4. When can children and pests re-enter the treated area?
5. What is the pre-harvest interval for this product and if you can't find it, who would you call to find out?

Southern Ag Dipel Dust

1. What is the signal word for this product and what might be the main reason for it being assigned this signal word?

2. What endangered or threatened organisms are the applicator of this product required not to harm and what does the label require the applicator do to protect those endangered organisms?

3. Can you use more than the label rate or less than the label rate of this product?

4. What is the pre-harvest interval for this product?

5. Where should this product be stored?